TO BE ELECTROCUTED.

For slaying his pretty sweetheart, Miss Amanda Morse, in cold blood, while in a jealous rage, Benjamin F. Gilbert, twenty-two years old, was found guilty of murder in the first degree in Norfolk, yesterday, and if the jury's sentence is carried out he will die in the electric chair.

Gilbert had been paying attention to Miss Morse, and, it is said, he thought his suit was gaining favor. Everything ran smoothly until the parents of the young lady denied Gilbert the privilege of calling.

Gilbert, enraged by jealousy, met his sweetheart on the Compostella bridge. She was with several young men and two girl friends. As the party passed Gilbert, he called Miss Morse aside, saying he wished to speak a work to her.

The girl approached him, and after a few words she wheeled to leave him. It was then the man whipped out a pistol and shot the girl, inflicting wounds which proved fatal twenty-four hours afterward.

Gilbert was captured, placed in jail, after several attempts had been made to do him harm by the enraged persons who lived near by. While in jail, he attempted to commit suicide.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver pills. Sold by W. F. Creigaton & Co.

SUICIDE OF A YOUNG WOMAN

Dora Abrams, a strikingly beautiful young woman, 24 years old, was found dead yesterday afternoon in her apartments, in Williamsburg, N. Y. Every crack and crevice in the doors and windows of her apartment had been carefully sealed with paper and cloth. This task, the police say, must have required three hours of time. Not a trace was found of any letters, nor is there any other means of ascertaining who her relatives are, and where she came from. The girl's body was found lying in her kitchen. She had dressed herself in her finest clothes, wearing all her jewelry. One end of a hose was tied to her mouth with a silk handkerchief and the other end was fastened to a small gas stove. On the girl's fingers were three diamond rings, in her ears were diamonds, and she had carefully arranged her hair before lying down to die.

Do not let anyone tell you that something else is just as good as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills because there isn't anything just as good. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

CREWS RESCUED.

The crews of the Lizzie A. Law and Selvin Marvin were yesterday brought to Houghton, Mich., leaving both vessels wrecked on the shores of Lake Superior. The two boats, with their crews of fifteen men, broke away from the steamer Edward Hines last Monday night. Helpless in the gale, the Law went ashore off Keweenaw peninsula, far from any life saving station. One of the sailors tried to reach shore in a yawl, but was capsized and reached the rocks by swimming. He drew with him a line by which the crew all escaped. A woman on board had to dress in man's clothing and she, too, was pulled to safety. The Hines found the crew and later discovered the schooner Marvin. It was necessary to scuttle the Marvin to prevent her from being dashed to pieces. The Law is a wreck.

MAGNESS A DESERTER.

Charles Joseph Magness, husband of the late Senator Gorman's eldest daughter, who was arrested in Louisville, Ky., on a charge of deserting from the U. S. ship Dolphin, is on his way to the League Island navy yard, in custody, where he will be tried on a charge of desertion from the navy. His wife is thought to be accompanying him. He intimated that State Senator Gorman will assist in getting him out of his trouble. Magness lived high while in Louisville.

Miss Georgeanna Kappler, a seamstress, of Baltimore, says that she was to have been married on September 22 last to Magness the husband of Miss Gorman and she says that her family may take some action in a breach-of-promise case. Mrs. Magness, at Louisville, yesterday announced that she would stand by her husband.

Miss Kappler has in her possession a number of love letters from Magness written to her in which he called her "sweetheart."

BRANDENBURG ARRESTED.

Broughton Brandenburg, magazine writer and correspondent, who sold to a New York newspaper the article in which the late ex-President Cleveland was quoted as favoring the election of Taft as against Bryan, was taken into custody in Dayton, Ohio yesterday afternoon by the police, at the instance of Chief of Detectives James S. McCafferty, of New York city, on a charge of larceny in the second degree.

Brandenburg, who went to Dayton several days ago, was in the act of boarding an eastbound train when taken into custody by the police. He said he was guiltless of any crime.

A photographer, whom he has been unable to locate, knows, he says, in part the conversation that took place between him and Mr. Cleveland on the subject. He said he will return to New York without extradition proceedings.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, OCT. 23, 1908.

THAT the president and Judge Taft attended church on Sunday last is attested by those who saw them, but it is recalled that when some of the Washington correspondents asked Judge Taft if politics had been discussed in the White House, he replied, "No, not on Sunday." Well, that the day and part of the night, was given up to a "dress rehearsal" is as clear as the noon hour sun on a cloudless day. Senator Knox made a speech on Tuesday night in Pittsburg, which was published in Wednesday's papers. In yesterday's papers the president had a letter of six columns addressed to Mr. Knox filled with law matters which was evidently prepared by one of the following "visiting statesmen," for Monday's papers said:

Early in the afternoon there was an informal luncheon in the state dining room, at which the president and Mr. Taft had as their joint guests Secretary of State Root, Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania; Mr. Justice Moody, of the United States Supreme Court, and Mr. Loeb, private secretary to the president.

Senator Knox read his speech right then and there, and the answer to be signed by Mr. Roosevelt was prepared and revised. The president asks Mr. Bryan some questions. One can rest assured an answer will be on the wires without delay.

THE ELECTION is less than two weeks off, and while there has been but few marked manifestations of party enthusiasm by democrats of Alexandria during the campaign, the determination to stand by the nominees of the party has been pronounced; hence, another large majority for Mr. Bryan is assured. It is hoped that the presidential issue, however, will not in any way cast its shadow over home interests, and that the present active and untiring member of Congress from this district. Hon. C. C. Carlin, will poll equally as many votes as Bryan and Kern. The representative from the Alexandria district became prominent as soon as he entered Congress, and while he has concentrated his exertions in the interests of his constituents, his labors in behalf of his state and country are well-known, and he should receive a large vote in appreciation of his services.

WHETHER Joseph G. Cannon, of Illinois, shall again serve in Congress as the speaker of the House has become one of the burning issues of the campaign in the middle west, where more than ten nominees for Congress have pledged themselves not to vote for him as speaker and where Mr. Gompers is leading organized labor to keep the speaker out of Congress altogether. And now the issue has penetrated to the east, where in the Seventh New Jersey district, E. W. Townsend, the famous creator of "Chimmie Fadden," is running for Congress against the republican candidate on an anti-Cannon platform.

IN PLACE of issues and arguments the republicans are trying to scare the people as to what will happen when Bryan is elected. What they threaten when Bryan is elected the people have been enduring since last October under a republican administration—a panic. What will happen if Bryan is elected is that every man will have an opportunity to conduct his business free from the domination of trusts and corporations. It will be a great day for the youth of this country.

THE sugar trust has sent a heavy cargo of sugar to Philadelphia to appease that city, which was growing restive at its loss of trade. The duty on this shipment will probably exceed $230,000. This action by the trust causes surprise and business men regard it as a bribe in government incrimination action.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 23.

Report of a piece of extraordinary detective work has just reached the secret service office here from Denver. Agents Gaddard and Callan of that city have just succeeded in apprehending on the street in a crowd of people, a man and a woman badly wanted for note raising—and merely from poor descriptions furnished by the victims of the couple. The note raisers have been operating for six weeks or more, passing their notes at small stores, where the light was poor and the spuriousness of the bills not so easily recognized. They gave their names as J. A. Seymour and wife.

Recognizing that directors of National Banks should pay more attention to the work of their institutions, Comptroller of the Currency Murray today issued a list of 29 searching questions to be put by examiners to each individual director when making their next examination, The questions are designed to bring out clearly the relation of the directors to the executive conduct of the bank; the extent of their knowledge of the paper held by the bank; the degree of latitude conceded by them to bank officers in over-stepping the provisions of the national banking law, and the nature of their oversight of accounts and assets, of the composition of the reserves, and of the correctness of the reports of the banks as turned in. Special stress is laid on the attention which has been given by directors to criticisms originating with the comptroller's office. One question is "how many of the directors have read the national bank act, and how many know the duties of directors and what the courts have decided as to the responsibility and liability of directors." It is stated that this is probably the first time a complete inquiry into the relationship between directors and their institutions has been officially undertaken.

President Roosevelt's entire cabinet will be on the stump in the whirlwind campaign finish next week. This decision was reached at today's cabinet meeting, when the political situation was fully discussed. Ohio, West Virginia, Maryland, New York state are considered the pivotal points for treatment by the members of the president's official family. The rumor is again current today that President Roosevelt himself may be prevailed upon to take the stump if the labor situation does not materially improve within the next few days. The demand for his appearance in the campaign has been growing stronger daily. It is understoodhere, that the president, in lieu of making speeches will contribute his quota of interest in the sensational finish by making public a number of political letters.

President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, returned to Washington today after a stumping tour for Bryan covering the last ten days and set to work immedia ely in the preparation of a statement in answer to the president's letter to Senator Knox, which will be issued later.

President Roosevelt is compelled to recognize that there are weak spots that must be mended between now and election day, in Ohio, Indiana and New York. Confidential information taken to the president in the past week indicate that Ohio is in a badly muddled political condition. The "Bryan wave," which it is admitted is following the democratic candidate through Indiana and Ohio and into the east, is causing some apprehension as to its effect upon these close states.

Now that President Roosevelt has intimated that he may write a play, there is much speculation in theatrical circles as to its possible character. Frederic Thompson, the hippodrome originator, producer of "Via Wireless" is authority for the announcement that the president contemplates turning his activities to play writing. Thompson lunched at the White House yesterday and during the conversation, expressed the hope that he might be called upon to produce the great American drama, by Theodore Roosevelt. "Well," replied the president, with a laugh, "prehaps, prehaps—but not yet."

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS.

Bryan's name came in for a lot of cheering at the meeting of the Association of Southern democrats in New York, held in Cooper Union last night, but the mention of Grover Cleveland brought out a response as long and as heartfelt as the crowd, which must have numbered 3,000, gave to Bryan.

William Hepburn Russell, who presided, hotly attacked the present administration as a personal dictatorship, and referred to Taft as Roosevelt's "alter ego."

"The government," he said, "was honey-combed with graft. The administration dares not make public the documents in its possession (now under lock and key and seal and guard) which show the distribution of the $40,000,000 we paid for the Panama canal. Nominally, we paid it to the 'French,' but who are the 'French?'"

Gov. Swanson, of Virginia, took a few cracks at the tariff.

"Roosevelt," he declared, "has appointed 99,316 officeholders—more men than Napoleon had when he won Marengo and Austerlitz; more than the allies had when they beat him; more than Meade had at Gettysburg. No wonder he could get Taft nominated."

VIRGINIA DOCTOR'S.

The Medical Association of Virginia, after an interesting session in Richmond in which many important papers were read and discussed, late yesterday afternoon elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: Dr. Stuart McGuire, Richmond, president; Dr. Landon B. Edwards, Richmond, secretary; Dr. R. M. Slaughter, of Alexandria, treasurer; Dr. A. C. Wright, of Garretts, first vice president; Dr. E. T. Bradt, of Abingdon, second vice president; Dr. Reid White, of Lexington, third vice president; Dr. Lewis Bosher, of Richmond, chairman of the executive committee; Dr. William McGuire, of Winchester, chairman of the executive council; Dr. A. L. Gray, of Richmond, clerk of the executive council.

Surgeon General Rixey, of the navy, made an address on the medical profession as represented in the navy.

Bryan Refers to Roosevelt's Letter.

Lambertville, N. J., Oct. 23—Mr. Bryan today took occasion to refer sarcastically to the president's letter to Senator Knox commending the latter's speech on the labor question. Bryan took his first "fall" out of the matter of Wilmington, Del., en route here, when he said to an audience of several hundred that had gathered at the station to meet him:

"I am glad that you are still able to greet me as the democratic candidate When I saw in the papers of yesterday that the president had removed Samuel Gompers as the head of organized labor and placed Senator Knox in his place, I began to get ready for anything. So I looked at the papers today in a sort of tremulous manner as I was half inclined to believe that Mr. Roosevelt might read me out of my own party and name some one else as the candidate. But so far he does not seem to have done so."

Believe Appointments Have Been Made.

Baltimore, Oct. 23.—Despite lack of confirmation from Cardinal Gibbons, it is believed in local Catholic circles that the appointment of Bishop Denis O'Connell, present rector of the Catholic University at Washington, as bishop coadjutor of the archdiocese of Maryland, and the appointment of Rev. O. B. Corrigan, of St. Gregory's, as auxiliary bishop, have arrived at the apostolic legation at Washington direct from the vatican and are being held here pending the return to Washington of Mgr. Falconi, the apostolic delegate, who is in St. Louis at present. The rumor is given strength by the fact that both Rev. O. B. Corrigan and Bishop O'Connell have both called on the cardinal within the past two days.

Japan's hopes for a sufficient home production of petroleum to make her independent of other countries, is near fulfillment as the result of the increased depth to which a number of wells in her oil fields have been sunk. These have been sunk to the third stratum, a depth of 300 feet, resulting in a greatly increased flow. Japan's importation of oil now amounts to more than $10,000,000 annually.

By authority of a law rushed through the Vermont legislature only a few hours before, Governor Prouty has issued a proclamation, postponing the deer hunting season which was to have opened at midnight October 25. This hasty action is due to the fact that the forests are dry as tinder and a fresh outbreak of fires is feared if the woods were filled with careless campers. The Vermont deer season lasts only six days.

Andrews, president of the United States Savings Bank, in Madison avenue. Tannenholz chased the thief for a block, and was grappling with him when he was shot. The robber jumped into an automobile and got away.

Charges were made in New York yesterday by William J. Conners, chairman of the democratic state committee, that the republican organizations in upstate counties had padded the registration rolls with anywhere from 10,000 to 20,000 names, and to prevent the casting of a fraudulent vote the executive committee had appointed a state law committee, with former Judge Alton B. Parker as chairman.

One of the biggest and most enthusiastic democratic mass-meetings of the campaign was held last night in Baltimore. Senator Rayner delivered a speech that aroused the enthusiasm of his hearers to the highest pitch. He answered effectively the arguments set forth by Judge Taft and Governor Hughes in their recent speeches in that city and referred in scathing terms to President Roosevelt's letter on the labor question which was published yesterday.

Today's Telegraphic News

Proposed Conference of Powers.

Tokio, Oct. 23.—Leading diplomats and scholars of Japan are today manifesting such enthusiasm for the idea of a conference of powers interested in the Pacific that it is almost certain Japan will issue the call for such a conference if the initiative is not taken by either England or America.

The argument is heard on every hand that the zones of interest and influence of Japan, England and America in the orient are rapidly expanding and must soon clash unless a permanent understanding is reached at a conference called as speedily as possible.

The reason for much of Japan's enthusiasm the inconference matter is the attempt to stir up a feeling in America for an alliance between America and Japan. While Japan does not think such an alliance probable, the agitation has occasioned some alarm. Japan holds that she is the national ally for either England or America, or both, in the control of the Pacific.

One of the most interesting events of the American's stay in Tokio was the reception this afternoon of Admiral Togo on his flagship. The American officers, including Admiral Sperry, were permitted to examine the big battleship from turret down

The last social function of the fleets' stay in Japan will the reception tomorrow at Yokohama aboard the flagship Connecticut to be followed by a dinner.

Tokio Oct. 23.—Admiral Sperry today attended the funeral of General Count Nodzu, one of the leading generals in the Russo-Japanese war. He was accompanied by his staff and followed the coffin. Many of the American fleet officers sent flowers to the bier, conspicuous among the pieces being the offering of Admiral Sperry. The Shinto religious rites were observed. there being also a full military service on the Aoyama Parade Ground. Four battalions formed a military escort to the grave. Admiral Togo and Marquis Ito headed the guard of honor.

Blizzard in the Northwest.

Winnipeg, Oct. 23.—Officials of the Canadian Pacific and the Canadian Northern railways today are struggling with a paralysis of traffic resulting from one of the worst blizzards the Canadian Northwest has ever experienced. The storm, which began yesterday, has increased in fury and the reports from the territory west of Winnipeg today state that it is at its highest.

Ten inches of snow has fallen and is being blown into railway cuts and piling in many places to ten feet deep. Canadian Pacific snow plows are hard at work but are making little progress. A Canadian Northern train ran into a snowbank just east of Vermilion and is stuck there.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 23.—Trains arriving from the northwest today reported serious delay resulting from the snowstorms which are sweeping northern Minnesota, North Dakota and Montana. Powerful rotary plows have been sent up to the northwestern divisional offices of the four railroad companies operating in the northwest.

Turkey and Bulgaria.

Constantinople, Oct. 23.—Grand Vizier Kiamail Pasha denied today that the negotiations between Turkey and Bulgaria had been broken off as a result of Bulgaria's refusal to pay the capitalized value of the east Rumelian tribute.

"A difference between us on this proposition has caused a temporary interruption of negotiations," said the grand vizier, "but I am hopeful tha the conference will be renewed within a few days. Turkey does not view the dispute as vital, for it is largely one as to the form which Bulgaria's compensation to Turkey shall take. Bulgaria is willing to make compensation, we understand, and the form that it shall take ought not to be an insurmountable barrier."

M. Dimitrieff, the Bulgarian agent, has returned to Sofia.

Nothing has developed in the negotiations between Turkey and Austria, but here again there is the strongest hope that an understanding can be reached that will make the proposed Balkan conference nothing more than a meeting of ratification. The majority of Turks believe that sooner or later the country will have to yield to Austria in the question of the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina. There is a growing desire to get the muddle cleared up as quickly as possible in order that the young Turks party may apply itself to fighting the reactionary movement that now menaces the new regime.

On His Way to America?

Turin, Oct. 23.—The Duke of the Abruzzi, who is to marry Miss Katherine Elkins, is believed by his friends to be now on his way to America. He left here last night in an automobile, his destination being unknown. The duke is known to be anxious to reach America as soon as possible, and it is believed that he will upset the plans of the admiralty to furnish him an escort to America by a hasty departure. The only member of the duke's family who is still holding out against the marriage is the Duke of Aosta, his brother. Big jewelers throughout Italy make no concealment of the fact that they have received orders for magnificent wedding presents from all the members of the duke's family, near and remote. It is said the wedding gifts will amount to $1,000,000.

Rumors to the effect that several members of Governor Swanson's staff would vote for Taft have proven without foundation. Of all the members of the staff but one, Colonel J. Scott Parrish, was thought likely to vote the republican ticket, and he emphatically denied the charge yesterday.

Straw Poll.

New York, Oct. 23.—With 19,324 votes to Bryan's 14,712, Taft leads in a straw-poll by the Literary Digest, which was made public here today. The remainder of the 35,710 ballots cast were divided among the other five candidates, Chafin, the prohibitionist candidate, polling 949, or 224 more than the combined votes of Debs, Watson, Hisgen and and Gilhaus. Fully 95 per cent. of the readers of the Literary Digest are declared to be preachers, bankers, lawyers, educators and business men, and the straw vote is taken as a conservative indication of election sentiment among those. Inspection of the ballot by states shows that Bryan carries the solid south by big majorities and leads in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Missouri and California. Taft, from the Digest's return, has a comfortable lead in New York, Indiana, Ohio and Nebraska, and in the eastern states runs far ahead.

Soldiers Led by Governor.

Union City, Tenn., Oct. 23.—Governor Patterson, surrounded by a personal guard of 25 men, today is in charge at the encampment of state troops at Samburg and will personally lead the hunt for the night riders who hanged Captain Quentin Rankin at Reelfoot Lake. Detachments of the troops are scouring three counties of Tennessee and are even going across the line into Kentucky in quest of Rankins murderers, and rewards amounting to $20,000 are now offered for their capture, dead or alive. Fearing a possibile raid by night riders, the state troops maintain two lines of sentinels about their camp at Samburg, following the posting of notices that if Governor Patterson did not discontinue his hunt for Rankin's assassin's assassins, dhe, himself, would be kidnapped.

Statement from Mayor Johnson.

Cleveland, O. Oct. 23.—Following the defeat of the franchise under which he has been operating the street car system of Cleveland, Mayor Tom L. Johnson today issued a statement in which, among other things, he says:

"The election results will be investigated. I have been informed that 2,000 votes cast in machine precincts were not counted last night. This must be cleared up. I may call for a recount. Should it appear, however, that we have lost by only one vote, I will not contest the election.

"The Municipal Traction Company will continue operating the lines until compelled to give them up. I expect to keep three cent fares in effect just as long as possible."

The official vote shows that the franchise was beaten by 605 majority.

Struck by Imperial Auto.

Berlin, Oct. 23.—Emperor William and Empress Victoria today sent anxious messengers to the hospital where the woman, who was struck by the imperial automobile, is hovering between life and death. The accident occurred as the royal couple and their three sons were returning from the railway station where they had bidden farewell to Prince August Wilhelm and his bride. The accident had a most depressing effect on the royal household, which only a few hours before had been the scene of the greatest merriment over the marriage of the fourth son of the emperor.

Silverware Stolen.

Dalton, Mass., Oct. 23.—Silverware valued at $1,000 or more including many valuable wedding presents were stolen last night from the home of Senator William Murray Crane. It is believed the burglars entered the home at about 9:30 when the fire tender left the cellar door open and committed the robbery about 2 a. m. Neither the senator, his wife nor any of the servants were awakened, and thus far there is no clue to the thieves.

Narrow Escape from Asphyxiation.

Philadelphia, Oct. 23.—Gas escaping from a pipe leak left by plumbers nearly caused the death of seven members of the family of Abraham Bolstein as they slept in their home in Philadelphia early today. But for the heroic fortitude of Bolstein's 19-year-old daughter Pearl, who, while half insensible herself, dragged her unconscious relatives into the street, all would have been suffocated. Bolstein and his wife were removed to the Pennsylvania Hospital where they are now in a critical condition.

The most inspiring scene, perhaps, occurred at the Midway Public School building, where were grouped over 1,200 pupils, each bearing a flag. These sang "Dixie" and "Suwanee River" as the parade passed.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

According to custom each member of the Ramblers' Club entertains on his birthday. Last night the honor fell to Mr. Geo. W. Roberts, who has reached the 30th milestone in life, and he did great credit to himself in one of the most pleasant oyster roasts given in this city. The bivalves were from Norfolk and were of a large variety. The parlors of the club on Cameron street were decorated profusely and the table was filled with tempting dishes which were partaken of with great relish. Prof. Grady's band discoursed lively ragtime music and a stag dance was indulged in. Speeches, recitations and songs were also a part of the evening's entertainment. Among those present besides the Alexandria members and invited guests were Messrs. Harry Hayden, Jacob Oppenheimer, Thomas Hershberger, Arthur McMahon and Charles Hammer, of Washington.

PLEASURE RESORT.

If one had not visited the Dyke, just below this city, in the past few years a trip to that resort, which at one time was just a small opening in the woods, would fill him with amazement. The railroad company has constructed a bridge across the stream and cleared the place of underbrush for a half miles. About 20 houses and arks are located there and many of them lighted with electricity. There are some handsome cottages there, among them those owned by Messrs. Chas. B. Marshall, F. M. Hamilton H. Friedlander and Henry C. Phillips. Other small ones add beauty to the rapidly growing pleasure resort.

STOLE RAINCOAT.

James Williams, colored, about 25 years old, was arrested last night by Officer Young charged with taking a raincoat from a dummy in front of Benjamin Abramson's clothing store, northeast corner of King and Washington streets. The negro endeavored to break away from the officer and a struggle followed, during which Mr. Young was compelled to use his baton on the thief. When brought into the Police Court this morning Williams said he had no recollection of removing the coat from the dummy, and could not explain how it got on his arm. He was sent to jail for six months.

GETTING ACTIVE.

The Bryan, Kern and Carlin Club's committees are as busy as bees mapping out work which will redound to the interest of the democratic party and tend toward getting out the vote. To this end a sub-committee of ten active workers has been selected from each ward whose duty it will be to engage in active work from now until election day and to be present at the polls and assist in rolling up as large a majority for the democratic candidates as possible. The Second ward contingent will meet at the office of Mr. R. D. Brumback tonight to perfect arrangements.

FINED FIFTY DOLLARS.

The case of Robert Grimes, white, and William Washington, colored, charged with selling liquor on Sunday, came up in the Police Court this morning. There was no evidence to show that Grimes, who is the proprietor of the saloon which is located near the old canal basin, had violated the law, and he was dismissed. Several witnesses, however, stated that they had purchased liquor from Washington last Sunday, and Justice Caton imposed a fine of $50 upon him. The accused were represented by Mr. R. D. Brumback.

He was brought before the court a few hours later when a fine was also imposed upon him.

QUALITY.

Hundreds of years ago, when this country was a raging wilderness, the Germans over in the Fatherland were enjoying their sausages and their saur kraut. It is a well known fact that no other nationality can compete with the German in making his frankfurters. An instance of this is found in the case of Mr. Nicholas Auth, who came to this country and built a reputation for his sausages in the city of Washington that is second to none. Another instance can be found at the "Auth Stand," a growing young establishment in the city market The quality of the Auth sausage has helped to make this stand one of the most handsome of its kind in this section of the country. It is certainly a pleasure to see a business of this character take root so firmly in the commercial industry of the city. People who are particular could not do better than patronize the "Auth Stand."

CHURCH NOTES.

The attendance and interest evidenced at the services in the Methodist Protestant Church last night were gratifying. Rev. Dr. Van Arsdale preached a strong sermon on "The Holy Spirit," that was much appreciated. Tonight, the Rev. J. M. Gill, of Washington, pastor of the Rhode Island Avenue M. P. Church, will preach. Rev. Gill is a strong and impressive speaker and the public will enjoy hearing him. Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Mr. Downing will address a men's meeting in the Methodist Protestant Church.

MOTION PICTURES.

That the pictures at the three amusement houses were of a high class was evidenced by the large crowds attending them. There is no doubt but that the people are receiving splendid entertainment this season.

At the Alexandria Amusement Company there will be an entire change tonight. "The Midnight Express," a great feature film, and "The Sailor's Sweetheart," an extra fine story, will be presented tonight. These are without doubt two of the most amusing reels to be seen tonight. Come out and see them.

Tonight the Elite Picture Company will present to the people of Alexandria the best show ever given, the pictures being the finest made. The Shepherdess, this is a beautiful story; Unusual Cook, this is comic and catchy, hand-colored; Wifeys Strategy—Hubby finds fault with her cooking; must have a cook; he hires one; and Oh, my she is a dandy, The Bridge of Sighs, More to be Pitied than Censured, making over 3,000 feet of motion pictures. Chrissie Waltham will again sing tonight. New songs; if you never heard her you are missing a treat. Owing to the length of show, will commence tonight at 7:15. Come early and secure a seat; we never change our price 5 cents to all.

At the Opera House tonight the Howards will appear in their laughable vaudeville "The 3 o'clock Train." Miss Alexander will again sing, and there will be an entire change of motion pictures. The vaudeville act is the finest ever.

Gordon Wendell, the juror whose illness forced a postponement of the government case against Charles W. Morse and Alfred Curtis, appeared today in the box in New York and the hearing was resumed before Judge Hough in the U. S. Circuit Court. Investigation of Morse's shipbuilding trust and the banking features attendant on its formation and conduct is expected to be the subject before the court today.

The 15,000 Chinese residents of Melbourne and Sydney have sent a check for $340,000 to the imperial government at Pekin in response to a demand sent to Chinese throughout the world to assist in the upbuilding of the Chinese navy. The Chinese in Australia hope to increase their contribution to $500,000, the amount raised by the Chinese in India, who were the first to respond.

NEW PICTURE HOUSE.

At the southwest corner of King and Pitt street under the Opera House is the new motion picture house to be opened in a few days. The front of this motion picture house is handsomely electrically lighted and the interior, when completed, will be a thing of beauty. The floor has been inclined and the room made suitable for the business. The linoleum, which makes a picturesque floor, was furnished by M. Rosenfeld. It is the intention of the managers to make this house one of the most attractive in this section, furnishing the latest pictures obtainable.

The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. THE SUFFRAGETTES.

So much interest has been aroused in London in Miss Critable Pankhurst's conduct of the trial of herself, mother, and Mrs. Drummond, "militant suffragettes," who are charged with inciting a disorder, that the officers of Bow street police court are taking steps to prevent any disorder at the resumption of their trial Saturday. Miss Pankhurst's examination by Ministers Lloyd-George and Gladstone was so searching that only the fact that the constitution forbids women from practing law prevents her from reaping a rich reward as a woman barrister. The trial of the 14 other women was resumed yesterday.

How Queen Bess Dined.

The setting out of the dinner of Queen Elizabeth was a ceremonious function. First came a gentleman with a rod, followed by a gentleman carrying a tablecloth, which, after they had knelt reverently three times, was spread upon the table. Then came two others, one with a rod, the other with a saltcellar, a plate and bread. They knelt three times, placed the things on the table, knelt again and retired. Next came a lady in waiting, followed by a second. The first lady, dressed in white, after kneeling three times, approached the table and solemnly rubbed the plates with the salt. Then entered twenty-four yeomen of the guard clad in scarlet and each carrying a dish of gold. These dishes were placed upon the table, while the lady taster gave to each of the guards a taste from the dish he had brought in for fear of possible poison. These guards were selected from the tallest and stoutest men in all England. At the close of this ceremony a number of unmarried ladies appeared and with great solemnity lifted the various dishes and carried them to the queen in her private apartments. The queen dined and supped alone, with few attendants, and it was seldom that any one was admitted at this time, and then only at the intercession of some one in power.

Coal Used by Romans.

It is believed by some historians that coal was used by the Romans on the continent and by the Britons on the island before the arrival of Caesar. As early as 1234 Henry III. granted a license to dig coal near Newcastle, but a few years later the use of coal was forbidden in London, the smoke being deemed prejudicial to public health. In 1306 the London gentry petitioned the king against its use, declaring that in spite of his royal order certain malicious persons persisted in burning it. Coals began to be brought from Newcastle to London in 1381, during the reign of Richard II. By the year 1400 coal was commonly burned in London as a fuel, though 200 years later, in the reign of Charles I., its use was far from being general throughout England. Anthracite coal, which, except the diamond, is the purest form of carbon known, was first used by a Connecticut blacksmith named Gore in 1768 and as a domestic fuel by Judge Jesse Fell of Wilkesbarre, Pa., in 1808.

A Fairy Tale Kingdom.

The kingdom of Uganda is a fairy tale. You climb up a railway instead of a beanstalk, and at the end there is a wonderful new world. The scenery is different, the vegetation is different, the climate is different, and, most of all, the people are different from anything elsewhere to be seen in the whole range of Africa. Instead of the breezy uplands we enter a tropical garden. In place of naked painted savages clashing their spears and gibbering in chorus to their tribal chiefs a complete and elaborate polity is presented. Under a dynastic king, a parliament and a powerful feudal system an amiable, clothed, polite and intelligent race dwell together in an organized monarchy upon the rich domain between the Victoria and Albert lakes.—Winston Churchill, M. P., in Strand Magazine.

A Promise Unfulfilled.

O. Henry, the well known story writer, once promised the editor of a magazine that he would deliver a short story to him on the following Monday. Several Mondays passed, but the muse was refractory, and the story was not forthcoming. At last the wrathful editor wrote this note:

My Dear O. Henry—If I do not receive that story from you by 12 o'clock today I am going to put on my heaviest soled shoes, come down to your house and kick you downstairs. I always keep my promises.

Whereupon O. Henry sat down and wrote this characteristic reply:

Dear Sir—I, too, would keep my promises if I could fulfill them with my feet.
